FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

System Outage Affecting Online Services

Kane County, IL, July 30, 2026 — The 16th Judicial Circuit is currently experiencing widespread technical outages that are impacting online operations. As of 07/30/2026, remote court access, online court records, and website search functions may be unavailable or delayed while our information systems remain offline.

In-person court operations are proceeding as scheduled unless otherwise notified. Individuals with scheduled hearings should follow any specific instructions previously provided by the court or their counsel and should appear in person as required. If you have an emergency or need assistance, contact the court using previously published phone numbers.

The 16th Circuit's IT team is actively working with vendors and partners to diagnose and restore services as quickly as possible. A new press release will be sent when the system is restored. Please monitor the court's official social media channels for interim updates.
