Kane County Judge Sandra Parga is appointed to Illinois Supreme Court Committee

The Honorable Sandra Parga, a Sixteenth Judicial Circuit Associate Judge, has been appointed to the Illinois Supreme Court Committee on Judicial Education effective immediately. The Administrative Office of the Illinois Courts defines the committee's role as to "coordinate, direct and deliver continuing education and training for all Illinois judges, including identifying emerging legal, sociological, cultural and technical issues that may impact decision making and court administration by Illinois judges."

Judge Parga says of her committee appointment, "I am excited for the appointment to serve on the Committee on Judicial Education. I welcome the opportunity to be a part of a committee dedicated to providing the most relevant and innovative educational courses to the judiciary and our judicial partners in Illinois. I am humbled both by the trust placed in me by the Illinois Supreme Court, as well as by carrying on in the seat held by retired Judge Robbin Stuckert, who was known for her hard work and dedication to the bench."

Judge Parga also serves on the Illinois Supreme Court's Language Access Committee, a subcommittee of the Access to Justice Division. Judge Parga says that the committee "works to provide language access services and support to courts to assist them in addressing language barriers so that litigants can have meaningful access to justice."

Judge Parga is currently an Associate Judge for the Sixteenth Judicial Circuit's Juvenile Division and has served as a judge since her appointment in 2017 as the first Latina judge in Kane County. Chief Judge Clint Hull said of her appointment to the Supreme Court Committee on Judicial Education, "The Sixteenth Circuit is very proud of Judge Parga. She is an excellent judge, and the entire State will benefit from her involvement with the Judicial College."
